

13th Annual Global Providers' Conference

June 26-28, 2020 | Livestream-Recorded Event

For the first time ever, our annual Social Thinking Providers' Conference is a virtual event, available to you for two weeks, no matter where you reside in the world (with the exception of one keynote*). It's a way to learn with us anytime, anywhere, while staying safe and hopefully as self-regulated as possible! Our 3-day conference will celebrate 25 years of the Social Thinking® Methodology by presenting cutting-edge information in the following format:

- 3 hours of original insights into executive functioning
- 3 hours of tips, tools, and teachings on self-regulation
- 3 hours of how to use the Social Thinking Methodology in-home and in tele-education

So, make plans today to join us for 3 days of events, 3 hours per day, 6 keynotes, and countless new ideas, insights, and information from some of the leading minds in social-emotional learning.

About Social Thinking

Foster social-emotional learning and social competencies with our groundbreaking strategies and tools. Help individuals ages 4–80 with solid to strong language and learning abilities (from autism spectrum levels 1 and 2 to ADHD to typically developing) communicate more effectively, improve social interpretation, advance personal problem solving, build relationships, and ultimately—experience greater well-being.

For 25 years, founder Michelle Garcia Winner and other experts have created novel ways to teach social competencies through social-emotional learning. Our work is based on research in human social development, social communication, anxiety management, neuroscience, and more.

We're thrilled when we hear from educators, clinicians, and families around the world that the Social Thinking Methodology has helped them change lives, and we'd love to help you do the same!

Who We Help

While our deeper work is for individuals ages 4+ with solid learning and language skills (autism spectrum levels 1 & 2, ADHD, and other social communication challenges), a subset of our work is being adopted into mainstream classrooms and workplaces around the world to improve social-emotional competencies for all.

Continuing Education Available

Continuing education is available for all qualifying professionals during the livestream. CE credit is available for recorded content for ASHA SLPs. The recorded version will not be eligible for CE for mental health professionals. Please note, Day 1 on-demand recording has only 1 hour and 15 minutes of instruction/CE time.*

We are proud to provide access to continuing education credit for:

- Speech-Language Pathologists
- Educators
- Social Workers
- Counselors
- Clinical and School Psychologists
- ...and others!

For more information visit: www.socialthinking.com/conference-continuing-education-credit

*Leah Kuypers's keynote is only available during the livestream and will not be available on-demand after the event is over. To earn CE credit for this part of the course, you must view Ms. Kuypers's presentation during the livestream event on June 26.

Social Thinking Publishing is approved by the Continuing Education Board of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) to provide continuing education activities in speech-language pathology and audiology. See course information for number of ASHA CEUs, instructional level and content area. ASHA CE Provider approval does not imply endorsement of course content, specific products or clinical procedures.

The full Livestream Providers' Conference is offered for up to 0.9 ASHA CEUs (Intermediate level, Professional area). Each day is available for 0.3 ASHA CEUs. The full Recorded Providers' Conference is offered for up to 0.7 ASHA CEUs (Intermediate level, Professional area). June 26 recorded course is offered for 0.1 ASHA CEUs; June 27 course – 0.3 ASHA CEUs; June 28 – 0.3 ASHA CEUs.

Who Should Attend?

In short—anyone who wants to help those with solid learning and language skills improve social competencies: speech-language pathologists, special and general education teachers, social workers, counselors, school and clinical psychologists, family members and caregivers, occupational therapists, behavior specialists, school administrators, and many others.

The Social Thinking Methodology builds:

- social competencies
- social self-awareness
- perspective taking
- self-regulation
- executive functioning
- social skills
- social-emotional understanding
- organizational systems
- reading comprehension of literature
- written expression, and more...

How does the livestream-recorded event work?

- Registered attendees will receive an email for the one or more livestream courses they registered for one day prior to the livestream event. In that email there will be a special link for each course.
- The week following the livestream event, the recorded event content will be made available to livestream attendees as well as attendees who sign up specifically to watch the recorded content on-demand.
- The recorded content will be available to all attendees for two weeks, with the content accessibility ending at 11:59 pm PT on the Monday, 14 days after the launch of recorded content.
