TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This letter confirms that Think Social Publishing, Inc., also doing business as Social Thinking, is the publisher and sole source provider of all Social Thinking® products that appear on our website, www.socialthinking.com, which are listed on Attachment A. Additions to this list may be made at any time as we publish new materials. (Note: Social Thinking also sells, via our website and at our conferences, products published by others. These are not sold by us on a sole source basis.)

There are no other like items or products available for purchase that serve the same purpose or function in teaching the Social Thinking® Methodology's concepts, vocabulary, teaching frameworks and/or motivational/developmental tools and strategies. All materials we publish, which include books, curricula, posters, CDs, educational toys and games, have a singular focus, which is to educate readers about the Social Thinking® Methodology and how to effectively teach it and use our materials.

All Social Thinking® published products are sold solely by us in the U.S. through our website, through phone, fax, and/or PO orders, through our company store at Amazon.com, and at conference events sponsored by our company or where our licensed speakers are presenting. We do not sell our titles to distributors/resellers in the U.S., although we do maintain a network of distributors in countries outside the U.S. who handle sales originating in their countries. Other than this exception, all items we publish must be purchased directly from Think Social Publishing, Inc.

About Social Thinking and the Social Thinking® Methodology: Social Thinking® is a proprietary methodology created by Michelle Garcia Winner, CCC-SLP, in the mid-1990s that consists of research-driven theoretical concepts, the unique Social Thinking Vocabulary, conceptual and treatment frameworks, motivational/developmental tools, and teaching curricula that help people develop their social competencies to better connect with others and live happier, more meaningful lives. Our educational products are designed to teach individuals, ages four through adulthood, to interpret and respond to social information and situational expectations regardless of culture, age, religion, race, socio-economic status, mental health diagnoses, etc. Our work is not static; it evolves and changes to reflect current thought and the changing social culture in which we live, while remaining constant in its adherence to rigorous standards of quality in educating and training others about the Social Thinking® Methodology.
